

One More is Just Enough

written 11/2006 by Doofus

D				G				D
I bet we all				know some-one whose				hab-it is col-lect-ing
D / / /				G D / /				G / / / / D

A7
It starts out as				one or two but				soon it is in-fect-ing no
/ / / A7				D A7 D /				A7 / / G / A7 /

G				D				A7				Bm
mat-ter what the				pas-sion in col-lect-ing				all that stuff
G / / /				D / / /				A7 / / / Bm

G				D				A7				D
We all know the				feel-ing, one				more is just e-nough.
G / / /				/ D /				A7 / G A7 D

Take teacups for example, displayed for all to see
Saved for extra special guests and never used for tea

Some folks love their baseball cards, Babe Ruths & Jimmy Foxes
What good are all those Rookie cards, if they're all stored in boxes

What about them stamp collectors, they really should know better
They stick their stamps away in books and cannot mail a letter

I know a guy with so much string, it could fill a vacant lot
But what good is miles and miles of string if he cannot tie a knot

Coin collectors have their books and carefully they tend them
The rare ones can be worth a lot, but they can never spend them

I know someone with chickens, I recognize her face
First they're in her kitchen, now they're on her bass

Now we'll admit to owning many instruments with strings
So much time for tuning, we never have time to sing

But people aren't really crazy, they're just like me and you
We all want to simplify, it's just too hard to do

If you are a music fan, I'll tell you there are no risks
It's time to start collecting, Start with Doofus disks